

Educational Video Network / Ethician Arts

For Immediate Attention

August 6, 2008

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

LONG PIG: THE MOVIE has been accepted as an entry in the first Horrific Film Fest which will be held in San Antonio, Texas from August 28-31, 2008. LONG PIG stars George H. Russell and Glen Philip have both been nominated for Best Actor at the festival.

"We are honored to be invited to be part of The Horrific Film Fest. It is great to receive some recognition for all the work that went into producing LONG PIG: THE MOVIE," said Carlo Rodriguez, writer and director of LONG PIG. "An important aspect of this festival to us is the fact that it brings horror films back to Texas. It gives Texas an opportunity to showcase independent films from all over the world and give recognition to the people who made them. San Antonio is a beautiful city, and I'm glad to be going there. I'm gonna have a margarita."

About The Horrific Film Fest

The Horrific Film Fest was established in order to give more opportunities and exposure to independent filmmakers around the world. Working with horror, horror/comedy, thriller, and suspense, filmmaker George L. Ortiz (Ortiz Entertainment: The House Of The Demon) and Jaime Becerril (Bec Sky Creations), joined forces in 2007 to bring this event to San Antonio, Texas. "Our goal is to bring tourism to the San Antonio area and attract filmmakers from around the world," they said. The filmmakers whose entries are accepted compete for awards such as best feature, best SFX, best actor, best actress, best short film, etc. The Horrific Film Fest will take place from August 28th through 31st at the Instituto Cultural De Mexico in Hemisfair Plaza - 600 Hemisfair Plaza San Antonio, TX, 78205.

About Long Pig

LONG PIG is an epic and brutally disturbing urban legend. The soldiers of Hell hunt the weak, the corrupt, and those whose souls have been lost to desire and temptation. They show no mercy. They strip away every ounce of dignity. They rip apart all shreds of humanity - all before feeding the appetites of the men and women of power who are cannibalizing our planet.

This underground film was produced by political and environmental activist Texas businessman, George H. Russell. The production of this film was very much a family affair as George Russell's 97-year-old father, lifetime educator Dr. Kenneth L. Russell, makes his acting debut with this project. Mr. Russell presents an allegory for the social, political, and economic turmoil that this country is currently experiencing in the form of the story of LONG PIG, and the movie - while certainly timely in its content - is timeless as its themes relate directly to the darker parts of Human Nature.