FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

LONG PIG: THE MOVIE has been accepted as an entry in the 2008 South African Horrorfest Film Festival which will be held at The Labia Theatre in Cape Town, South Africa from October 30-November 6, 2008.

"We are honored to be invited to be part of The Horrorfest Film Festival. It is great to receive some international recognition for all the work that went into producing LONG PIG: THE MOVIE," said Carlo Rodriguez, writer and director of LONG PIG. "First and foremost, this could very well be one of the most crucial moments of our careers. It gives us an opportunity to showcase an independent film on the world's stage. Not only is this the South African premiere, but this will be the first time our film will be shown on the entire African continent. Great thanks to Flamedrop Productions & Shadow Realm, inc. for believing in us and giving us a chance. Also, special thanks to Something Wicked Magazine, Masque Make-Up & FX Warehouse, Visual Impact & HDhub, Sound & Motion Studios, City Varsity, AFDA."

About Long Pig

LONG PIG is an epic and brutally disturbing urban legend. The soldiers of Hell hunt the weak, the corrupt, and those whose souls have been lost to desire and temptation. They show no mercy. They strip away every ounce of dignity. They rip apart all shreds of humanity - all before feeding the appetites of the men and women of power who are cannibalizing our planet.

This underground film was produced by political and environmental activist Texas businessman, George H. Russell. The production of this film was very much a family affair as George Russell's 97-year-old father, lifetime educator Dr. Kenneth L. Russell, makes his acting debut with this project. Mr. Russell presents an allegory for the social, political, and economic turmoil that this country is currently experiencing in the form of the story of LONG PIG, and the movie - while certainly timely in its content - is timeless as its themes relate directly to the darker parts of Human Nature.
